

I5A – AIR ENVIRONMENTAL SYSTEM TECHNICIAN

JULY 1, 2002

Title/Class Code	Education/Experience/Licensure/Certification	Substitutions
AIR ENVIRONMENTAL SYSTEM TECHNICIAN I I5A1TX	Four years experience in engine/mass emissions testing including driveability diagnosis, tune-up and repair; mass emissions instrument/equipment calibration; repair and fabrication of electrical/electronic equipment and/or mechanical systems used in mass emissions testing; and/or engine performance, alternative fuels and/or air conditioning refrigerant recovery and maintenance. Must possess a valid Colorado Driver License. Some positions may require Automotive Service Excellence Certification.	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in mechanical, electrical, electronic, chemical or industrial engineering may substitute for up to two years of experience. An automotive related associate's degree or Automotive Service Excellence Certification in emissions related area may substitute for one year of experience.
AIR ENVIRONMENTAL SYSTEM TECHNICIAN II I5A2XX	Five years experience in engine/mass emissions testing including driveability diagnosis, tune-up and repair; mass emissions instrument/equipment calibration; repair and fabrication of electrical/electronic equipment and/or mechanical systems used in mass emissions testing; and/or engine performance, alternative fuels and/or air conditioning refrigerant recovery and maintenance. Must possess a valid Colorado Driver License. Some positions may require Automotive Service Excellence Certification.	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in mechanical, electrical, electronic, chemical or industrial engineering may substitute for up to two years of experience. An automotive related associate's degree or Automotive Service Excellence Certification in emissions related area may substitute for one year of experience.